

VINCENT N.

Reserved, Collected, Driven

"Of that colossal Wreck,
boundless and bare
The lone and level sands
stretch far away."

- Percy Bysshe Shelley

BIOGRAPHY

Vincent is a collected, self-driven individual with a deep aptitude and love for writing and history. Meticulous in his work, he strives for perfection, always seeking to improve himself.

As a long-term member of his school's newspaper publication, The Roar, Vincent has proven himself capable of meeting journalistic standards with a wide array of articles and photos to his name. He has received accolades, attended workshops, and interns at the local newspaper The Silicon Valley Voice, hoping to one day enter the same field on a professional level.

Aside from his affinity for the humanities, Vincent's interest in STEM and engineering has continued to be a defining constituent of his life; he is now in his fourth year as part of a robotics team and in his third working at a CNC machining shop.
